

Abstract: This paper provides a description of the state of the art of accreditation and quality evaluation in Portugal and a short analytical synopsis of the major ideas which support the logic of “accreditation in the framework of evaluation activities” of Portugal