

In this introductory chapter the editors of the book explain what are the main objectives of this work and present its structure. Some brief notes are also prepared to the general reader who is not acquainted with the history of the European University Association and the way it has been transformed over time.